Harriet Martineau. 20 Queen's Terrace, Regent's Park. Aug 31. 1856.

W. L. Garrison.

My dear Friend

I enclose

ten pounds, in a Bank of England note, which I have just received from Harriet Martineau with the following, — which I venture to copy.

Married

Knowing you will be careful that it does not get into the papers, as it was not meant for any thing but a gratifica
tion of her own private feelings, — & mine.

"I must send my tribute to Garrison, very small as it is — & now that my days

of Earning are pretty well over I cannot venture to lend more than £10. Will you have the goodness to get it into Garrison's hands in the way you think best. If he knows when it comes, I should like him to know that except in trying to do him some sort

J

of justice in print, I have no other way of testifying my profound reverence, admiration & gratitude. I should be thankful for any opportunity whatever of giving him any sort of satisfaction, — & as this is the only method at my command I use that: & I am sure he will not misunderstand."

With Cordial regards & best wishes to all yours
— more especially the children who are about to be
